

SUPERVISION

Supervision and workshops are central components to the WPCS training program. The training activities in which interns participate include:

- 2 hours of individual supervision per week
- 1 hour group supervision per week
- 1 hour professional development seminar weekly
- Other professional development and training activities, as scheduled

APPLICATION FOR INTERNSHIP

Applications are accepted through November 30th of the academic year prior to internship. Application information should include the applicant's email address. Each applicant will be advised of the receipt of the application, and whether the application is complete, or, if not, which materials are still needed. Review of applications begins the week following the application deadline. In-person interviews are preferred, and are scheduled to occur during the month of January.

WPCS has adopted the internship selection and notification policies and procedures prescribed by APPIC standards.

Application should include:

- 1) Standard APPIC application forms (available at <http://appic.org>) including verification of eligibility from Training Director of the applicant's academic program
- 2) Transcripts from all graduate-level institutions attended
- 3) Current curriculum vita
- 4) Three sealed letters of recommendation, signed across the closure by the writer. .

Applications should be submitted to:

Joni Moon, Psy.D.
Director of Training
Western Psychological and Counseling Services
Plaza 125, Building J
12636 SE Stark
Portland, OR